Renewal candidates must select an early childhood professional to serve as their Early Childhood Education (ECE) Reviewer. The role of the ECE Reviewer is twofold:

- 1. To verify that the renewal candidate has worked at least 80 hours with children, in the setting of their original credential, within the past year; and,
- 2. Complete a recommendation based on their work with these children. The person selected as the ECE Reviewer must meet the experience and education requirements included in this booklet.

Eligibility Requirements

Center-Based and Family Child Care Early Childhood Education Reviewer

The Early Childhood Education (ECE) Reviewer must meet one of the following sets of education and experience options:

Education and Experience

Option I

- B.A., B.S., or advanced degree in early childhood education/child development or home economics/child development from an accredited college or university. Must include 12 college credits covering children ages 0 to 5 years.
- Two years of experience in a child care setting serving children ages 0 to 5 years, including:
 - One year of experience working directly with children in the same age range as the children in renewal candidate's setting as a caregiver, teacher, child life worker, social worker, or similar role; and
 - One year of responsibility for the professional growth of another adult.

Option II

- Associate level (2-year) degree in early childhood education/child development or home economics/child development from an accredited college or university. Must include 12 college credits covering children ages 0 to 5 years.
- Four years of experience in a child care setting in a program serving children ages 0 to 5 years, including:
 - Two years of experience working directly with children in the same age range as the children in renewal candidate's setting as a caregiver, teacher, child life worker, social worker, or similar role; and
 - Two years of responsibility for the professional growth of another adult.

Option III

1. A valid (indicating active status) national CDA® credential.
2. Twelve college credits or 180 clock hours of training in early childhood education or child development at an accredited college or university, covering children ages 0 to 5 years.
3. Six years of experience in a child care setting serving children ages 0 to 5 years, including:
 - Four years working directly with children in the same age range as the children in renewal candidate's setting as a caregiver, teacher, child life worker, social worker, or similar role; and
 - Two years of responsibility for the professional growth of another adult.

Conflict of Interest

To promote objectivity and credibility, an individual serving as the CDA® renewal candidate's Early Childhood Education (ECE) Reviewer must:

1. Not be working as a co-teacher with the renewal candidate on a daily basis in the same room or group.
2. Not be the relative of a child in the renewal candidate's care at any time during the renewal process.
3. Not be related by blood or marriage or other legal relationship to the renewal candidate.

Criteria for the Candidate's Recommendation

When submitting the recommendation, the ECE Reviewer needs to make sure to:

- Verify that the renewal candidate has worked at least 80 hours with children (within the setting of their original credential) within the past year.
- Attest to the renewal candidates performance with children based on the six CDA® Competency Goals and 13 Functional Areas (see applicable chart)
- Recommend the candidate for renewal of the CDA credential.

Submitting the Recommendation

Candidates Applying Online

If the candidate is applying online, the ECE Reviewer will need to provide the candidate with their email address. A recommendation request will be sent to the email address provided. The ECE Reviewer will submit the recommendation via a link contained in the email that will access the candidates online application.

Please note: the system works best with a personal email like a Yahoo, Gmail, or Hotmail. If a work email is provided, make sure that the security settings on the computer being used will allow emails to be received from info@yourcouncil.org.

Candidates Applying with a Paper Application

When applying using a paper application, the ECE Reviewer submits the recommendation by completing Section D of the CDA® renewal application.

A separate recommendation letter may be submitted however Section D of the renewal candidate's application must still be completed in its entirety.
